Davismen Win Two More as Brookline Dives to 3d Place

Narberth's Heavy Barrages Silence Both Downingtown and Coatesville

MEDIA IS NEXT VISITOR

While Narberth was adding victories over Downingtown and Coatesville to maintain its perch on top of the Main Line Baseball League, an eighth-place Media A. A. team was trouncing Brookline, 13-6, to drop the Haremen into third place, while George Nellings' Gladwyne team ascended to the second position by wins over Coatesville and Upper Darby. Brookline redeemed itself Sunday by beating Pottstown, 12-6.

The Paoli team, which loomed as a real threat after six straight wins, dropped the Sunday decision to Downingtown, 11-9.

On Saturday Walter Masters allowed Downingtown ten hits and his Narberth teammates committed three errors, but all the visitors could make on the total was two runs. Meanwhile the bats of the Davismen clouted out twelve safeties for eight scores. Narberth's bats were mighty, with Myers slamming two triples and a double; Fox one triple and two doubles; Gazella another triple and Rubincam, a two-bagger. Masters struck out seven men.

Sunday the Davismen went on a worse rampage against Coatesville's hurlers, Haupt and Smith, smacking nineteen hits for eleven runs. Al Herrmann pitched a grand game for the winners allowing Coatesville five hits and four runs. He fanned six. Catcher Jack Eachus and second baseman Tanny Ralston had perfect batting averages with five and four bingles respectively, with Ralston's including a triple and a double. Gazella also wielded a hefty stick with two singles and a two-bagger.

Tomorrow Media comes to the borough diamond and while it is unlikely the boys from the heart of Delaware County will pull another surprise so soon, one never can tell. On Sunday the Davismen will seek independent laurels, journeying to Atlantic City for an exhibition game against the shore resort's best.

Ehmann Asks Rotary to Aid Hospital Drive

$60,000 in Free Services Given Annually, Says Campaign Worker

Practical reasons for supporting the Bryn Mawr Hospital's million dollar endowment campaign were given Tuesday by Edwin W. Ehmann, head of the men's division of the drive, who addressed the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club luncheon.

Mr. Ehmann stated that the campaign would give the service club members an excellent opportunity to help others. Success in the drive, he pointed out, means the retirement of the hospital mortgage and annual savings in interest charges of $42,000.

At present, he said, the Main Line is receiving $60,000 in free services from the hospital each year of which the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth area receives $4500.

Dr. R. M. Staley, vice-president of the club, who presided, announced that the Community Service Committee would take action on Ehmann's request for aid for the institution.

The president, William H. Durbin, and the secretary, Dr. F. Munro Purse are attending the Rotary District conference this week.

Narberth School Registration Days Are September 2 and 3

Registration days for new pupils in the Narberth School will be on Thursday and Friday, September 2 and 3, from 1 to 4 P. M.

Kindergarten pupils (children who will be five years old on or before February 15) will register September 2.

Registration in grades 1 to 8 of children not previously enrolled in the borough schools will be September 3.

Both groups must present vaccination certificates and legal evidence of their birth dates.

The local schools will open Tuesday, September 7.

Famous Violinist at Dell

JASCHA HEIFETZ
who will appear on the concert program Thursday and Friday with Jose Iturbi conducting.

Dell Program Features Heifetz, Opera Carmen

World-Famous Violinist and Popular Opera Will be Premier Attractions

Jascha Heifetz, one of the world's great violinists, comes to Robin Hood Dell in Fairmount Park next week as a premier attraction in the summer concerts season.

Making his first appearance of the season, Mr. Heifetz plays Thursday and Friday with Jose Iturbi, renowned Spanish pianist-conductor, on the podium.

Another impressive feature next week will be Bizet's beautiful and world-famous opera "Carmen," the second of four operas to be given at the Dell. It will be presented Monday and Tuesday with an all-star cast including artists popular in local music circles.

Irra Petina, noted soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York, will sing the title role. This will be Miss Petina's third appearance at the Dell as Carmen.

Another veteran of the Metropolitan Opera Company, Armand Tokatyan, who scored a big success at the Dell recently in "Madame Butterfly," will sing Don Jose.

Other stars in the company will be Irene Williams, as Micaela; Stefand Ballarini, as Escamillo; Louis D'Angelo, as Zuniga; Lys Bert, as Frasquita; Georgia Standing, as Mercedes; Charles Haywood, as Remendado; Charles Miller, as Lillas Pastia; and Daniel Harris appearing in dual roles of Dancairo and Morales.

Alexander Smallens, who conducts most of the stage attractions at the Dell, will lead the Orchestra.

Four Republican Candidates Want Prothonotary's Post

With the closing of petitions Monday afternoon, four Republicans were in the field for the office of prothonotary in Montgomery county.

Favorite to win the contest is Walter A. Wilson, former Norristown burgess and present treasurer of the Republican County Committee, who has the indorsement of the Republican Executive Committee. Wilson left his job as editor of the Norristown Times-Herald when Ralph B. Strassburger, its publisher, turned in for the New Deal.

His rivals are three independents, William T. Muldrew, veteran fireman; Earl B. Bechtel, borough treasurer in Pottstown, and Romanus Fellman, former warden at the county prison.

A contest developed for the same office among the Democrats, with two aspirants filed. They are Dr. Irwin H. Kehs, East Greenville, and W. Montgomery Hopkins, Willow Grove.

Robert C. Miller, Prominent Republican, Dies at Norristown

Robert C. Miller, who for a quarter of a century was treasurer of Montgomery county's Republican Committee, died in Montgomery Hospital, Norristown, Monday morning after a brief illness. He was 74.

Mr. Miller at the time of his death was a State inheritance tax appraiser. He served as a member of the State Assembly from 1912 to 1916 and for sixteen years was a register of Wills of Montgomery county.

Republicans Roll Up Large Majorities in Township and Boro

Narberth and Lower Merion Give G. O. P. Four-to-One Lead

JULY REGISTRATION LOW

Republicans held a better than four-to-one registration lead in Lower Merion Township and the Borough of Narberth, a tally of the total enrollment during the registration days in June and July reveals. Throughout Montgomery County, out of a total enrollment of 77,828, Republicans garnered 54,862, or 70.5 per cent.

Narberth and Lower Merion each showed a tremendous majority registered Republican—eighty-one per cent of the totals. It was in this section of the County, especially, that the G. O. P. rolled up its greatest strength.

Registration during the two specified days last week was exceedingly light throughout the County, with only 20,926 persons enrolling as against 56,744 in the two June days. Political leaders attributed the light registration to the fact that so many people are away on vacations. Only in the industrial sections of the County did July enrollment compare favorably with that of June.

Strongest Republican district in the two Main Line municipalities was North Ardmore, with eighty-nine percent G. O. P. Out of a total registration of 404, 362 enrolled as Republicans.

Strongest Democratic districts in township or borough were the South Ardmore district No. 2 and the East Lower district, each with slightly over thirty per cent registered as Democrats.

Total registration in the Borough was 1973, of which 1597 were Republicans, 327 Democrats and 49 miscellaneous.

District registrations were: Narberth No. 1, Republican, 515; Democratic, 111; miscellaneous, 16. Narberth No. 2, Republican, 740; Democratic, 129; others, 22. Narberth No. 3, Republican, 342; Democratic, 87; others, 11.

Total registration in the Township was 11,681, of which 9507 were Republicans, 1996 Democratic, and 178 miscellaneous.

Merion Man Commands Troops at Peiping Marine Barracks

Commander of the U. S. Marine barracks at Peiping, scene of the Sino-Japanese war, is a Merion man, Colonel John Marston.

He is in charge of 22 officers and 489 men who are responsible for the protection of about 1300 Americans.

His aunt, Mrs. Mary W. Marston, lives at 515 Wynnewood road, Merion, and "Colonel Jack" is well known in the community.

Township Relief Decreases

A net decrease of five families on the relief rolls in Lower Merion Township was noted last week, the figure now being twenty-eight cases. Four cases were reported for Narberth, an increase of two.

Railroad Plans to Build South Side Ticket Office

Erection of an additional ticket office on the south side of the Narberth Station is being planned by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

A survey is now being made by Harry E. Wolcott, division superintendent, to determine just where to place the new office, what its cost would be, and other details.

Building of the new office would mean a great saving in time to Narberth's south side residents who comprise about one-third the users of transportation from the borough to Philadelphia.

The added service also would save northside patrons the necessity of climbing up and going down several flights of steps when purchasing tickets.

Contest for Magistrate Only One in Narberth

Four Republicans Seek Two Nominations; Few Democrats File Petitions

Narberth will have only one contest at the Phimary Election on September 14 when four Republicans will seek to be elected as party candidates for two vacancies as justices of the peace.

Otherwise the G. O. P. will have a full slate in the field with no opposition from independents.

In what promises to be the tamest Primaries in the borough in history, Democratic petitions were filed by only four candidates with eleven offices at stake.

Republican aspirants for the magistracy are Magistrate H. C. Fritsch, Vincent F. Cunningham, Horace Smedley and Roy Gowland. The only Democratic candidate is Magistrate Joseph P. Magarity.

Burgess John R. Hall will be opposed for re-election at the November election by Anton E. Wohlert, Narberth nurseryman and only Democratic candidate for the nomination.

"Bonus" Winners at Narberth

Winners and their awards in the popular "Bonus" game at the Narberth Theatre Monday night were:

Mrs. William Wren, 524 Oak road, Merion, toaster; Miss Peggy MacGuffin, 290 Brookway avenue, Merion, bridge set; Miss Edith Randall, 125 Glenwood road, Merion, toy dog; Miss Helen Kerrigan, 402 Haverford avenue, Narberth, Old Fashioned set; Bob Rittenhouse, 511 Wynnewood road, Narberth, salad bowl; Joe Rubincam, 222 Haverford avenue, Narberth, carpet sweeper.

Trap Shoot at Thorndale

A two-day trap shoot for eighteen big hams and an electric clock has been scheduled at Thorndale tomorrow and Sunday by the Chester County Rod and Gun Club, Inc. The meet will start at 1.30 P. M. each day.

Novelty Races and Games Provide Much Fun for Ranger Lodge Boys

(Editors Note: This is the third in a series of letters from the boys at Ranger Lodge, Casco, Maine.)

Baseball games with other camps and trips to various points of interest featured the third week at Ranger Lodge. Another new event was the first water carnival.

The ball teams finally snapped their losing streak Tuesday when a softball team composed of boys of mixed ages submerged Camp Kingsley, 23-7. Dick Miller pitched well with the indoor ball while George Paine, Harry Middleton, Ross Collins and Johnny Stoudt capably took care of the hitting. The next day the peanuts duplicated Kingsley's rout by swamping the opposition 26-3. Billy Ryan pitched well and again everybody hit. Ned Hance, Paul Hicks and Phil Carr did well as substitutes besides the usual stand-bys like Dick Longaker and Marshall Brooks. There is to be a tough game with Camp Agawam next week and the little fellows will need all the practice they can get.

Two canoe trips were dispatched down Long Lake, through the Songo River into Lake Sebago and back again. Jack Schofield, Buzz Torrey and Bobby Roberts turned out as the strongest paddlers on one trip and Frank Wedge and Ken Clancy were the he-men on the other. This latter had a comic element attached when Rabbit Narrigan was caught in swimming without any clothes by a passing girls' canoe trip. He was forced to stay in the water longer than he anticipated but he finally gained the seclusion of a clump of bushes.

Three trips journeyed to the state fish hatcheries at Gray, Maine, the largest in the world. The little fellows like Fred Stelwagon and Dick Ryan were shown how the reserves were kept for stocking the lakes and streams of Maine while older boys like Dan Karcher and Ted Collins appreciated the deer and bears of the game part of the farm.

Convention Chairman

FRANK A. SCHREPFER
of Narberth, past national commander of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, who is general chairman of that organization's convention to be held August 6, 7 and 8 in Philadelphia.

Narberth Man Heads Order's Convention

Schrepfer is General Chairman of Purple Heart's 155th Anniversary Event

When the Military Order of the Purple Heart holds its national convention in Philadelphia, August 6, 7 and 8, it will be under the direction of a Narberth man.

He is Frank A. Schrepfer, past national commander of the Order, and general chairman of the convention which on August 7 will mark the 155th anniversary of the founding of the Purple Heart by General George Washington.

Members of a Citizens' Committee, who will serve with Mr. Schrepfer, include Ralph T. Senter, of Overbrook; Harold W. Scott, of Merion, and Congressman J. William Ditter. Mayor S. Davis Wilson is serving as honorary chairman of the Citizens' Committee.

Convention headquarters will be in the Benjamin Franklin Hotel.

This Sunday, it was announced by H. Grover O'Connor, of Narberth, commander of the Valley Forge Chapter of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, sixty-four veterans wounded in action in the World War will receive the Order's medal at the Coatesville Hospital.

Commander O'Connor will preside at the mass presentation, while Congressman Ditter will be one of the speakers.

Man Admits Robbing Narberth Dry Cleaners Last November

Picked up on suspicion Saturday in Abington, David J. Davidson, 35, of North Marston street, Philadelphia, confessed to a theft of $80 from a Narberth dry cleaning establishment last November.

Davidson was arrested after he had posed as a company official at several stores of the Orange dry cleaning chain of which the Narberth store is also a member.

He told Lieutenant Walter Brown and Sergeant Frank Pollack of the Lower Merion police, who were called in to question him, that he had posed as a painter at the borough store, fixed the door so he could re-enter after closing hours and then had taken the money.

Magistrate C. Howard Meredith, of Lower Merion, held him for court.

Guest at Farewell Party

The Ladies Aid of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church of Narberth gave a farewell party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. R. E. Seaboldt of N. Narberth avenue, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Briner on Merion avenue. Mrs. Seaboldt was presented with a silver bonbon dish. She will move on August 1 to Philadelphia.

Deadline for Filing Petitions Finds Field Narrowed in Township

Peter C. Hess Files Papers for Township Treasurer; Opposed by Lachman

WITHDRAWAL DATE SAT.

With Monday the deadline for filing petitions for the September Primary, rumors of candidates who might run for township treasurer were definitely killed.

Efforts on the parts of local Democrats to persuade several prominent Republicans to run against the incumbent, Peter C. Hess, met with failure. J. J. Skelton, Jr., of Cynwyd, and Dr. Charles Seidel, of Bryn Mawr, were approached but refused to run.

Mr. Hess, who has served four terms as tax collector, will be opposed by only one candidate, Charles Lachman, Cynwyd Estates manufacturer, who filed on the Republican ticket.

Besides a township treasurer, party voters will nominate six township commissioners, four school directors, one magistrate and one auditor.

The commissioners who are seeking re-election on the Republican ticket are Dr. F. P. K. Barker, Gladwyne; Wm. G. Frankenfield, South Ardmore; William McConaghy, West Ardmore; Thomas W. Andrews, Merion; Thomas W. Hammonds. Bryn Mawr; and Col. J. Burton Mustin, Rosemont.

The only contest is in the South Ardmore District where Frankenfield will be opposed by Bernard R. Fischer, of Ardmore. On the Democratic ticket are John H. Opdyke, Merion; Howard E. Metzler, Bryn Mawr; Francis P. McGurk, Penn Wynne; William B. Read, Gladwyne.

The four incumbent school directors who are seeking re-election on the Republican ticket are Joseph W. Anderson, Ardmore; Joseph E. Sands, Rosemont; J. Herbert Baltz, Wynnewood, E. E. Ludwick, Cynwyd.

Candidates on the Democratic ticket are A. Paul Shalet, of Cynwyd, Frederick J. Manning, of Bryn Mawr and Elizabeth Hanger, of Bala.

Magistrate Franklin P. Kromer, of Cynwyd, filed a petition for nomination as magistrate on the Republican ticket and Henry Friedman, of Bryn

Dr. Henry S. Drinker Dies at Summer Home

Merion Engineer and Lawyer Was Retired President of Lehigh University

Dr. Henry Sturgis Drinker, educator, lawyer and engineer, whose home was at 252 Merion road, Merion, died suddenly last Monday at his summer residence in Beach Haven, N. J. He was 86.

Death was due to heart disease.

Both the funeral services and interment were private.

He is survived by his wife, Aimee Ernesta Veaux Drinker, six children. Henry S., Jr., also of Merion, senior member of the law firm of Drinker, Biddle and Reath; James B.; Cecil K., dean of the School of Public Health of Harvard University; Mrs. Ernesta Barlow, of New York, who is now abroad; Phillip, associate professor in the Harvard Medical School and inventor of an artificial respirator, and Mrs. Catherine D. Bowen, author, also of Merion, and 16 grandchildren.

Dr. Drinker, who was born in China, was one of the oldest summer residents in Beach Haven. He made yearly visits since 1881, at which time the only means of travel to the resort was by boat.

Dr. Drinker received degrees from Lehigh University, the University of Pennsylvania and Lafayette College. He was general solicitor of the Lehigh Valley Railroad until 1905, when he resigned to become president of Lehigh University. He was one of the founders of the Institute of Mining Engineers, and after retiring from Lehigh University in 1920, he headed the Pennsylvania Forestry Association.

His hobby was music, and he published several compositions of Brahms which he discovered had never been heard by the public.

Friends' Conference

Members of the Society of Friends in this section are much interested in a world conference, second of its kind, to be held in Swarthmore and Haverford Colleges, during the first week of September. They look for one thousand or more to attend from fifty Yearly Meetings and seventeen "Independent" Meetings, with 224 Friends from abroad, representing twenty-three countries.

Anne Griscom Elkinton is chairman of the general committee of 389 members who have been busy for three years laying plans for this second world conference, the first having been held in London, in 1920.

France, Germany, Sweden, Holland, Great Britain, in fact, about all the countries of the world are to be represented by delegates who will bring greetings to show how they are thinking and hoping for better conditions throughout all nations.

Leslie D. Shaffer is secretary of the committee, and among the leaders are such well known persons as Dr. Rufus M. Jones, professor emeritus of Haverford College, chairman of the American Friends' Service Committee; Herbert D. Wood, director of studies at Woodbrooke, England, and Hulsean lecturer at Cambridge University; Gilbert and Minnie P. Bowles, of Japan, who used to be at Westtown School, with so many more that it makes one dizzy to read the list.

This conference is a move in the right direction, not with the aim of promoting power on the part of any group, but to seek truth and follow it, that the whole world might be able to rise to things higher than disputes about matters of the "earth-earthy," and consider man's welfare from every point of view.

Roger Hanger Makes Unusual Record at University of Penna.

Mr. Roger A. Hanger, son of Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy Hanger, of Cynwyd road, Bala, left this past week to accept a position with the Ohio Boxboard Company, Rittman, Ohio.

While at the University of Pennsylvania, Mr. Hanger made an unusual record. He graduated third in his class at Wharton School. He was co-captain of the championship basketball team and won the Frazier Prize in his Junior year for highest scholastic standing of any athlete with a Varsity letter.

He was awarded the Howard McCall Varsity Scholarship, was president of the Wharton Association, treasurer of Sphinx Senior Honor Society, member of Beta Gamma Sigma, Scholastic Fraternity, president of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity, business manager of the Wharton Review, Editorial Board of Pennsylvanian, member of Franklin Society and Ticket Chairman of the Ivy Ball.

Only two Democrats seek nomination for the four places on the ticket as councilmen. They are Kenneth L. M. Pray, prominent Earle New Dealer and social service authority, and Bruce Byers, of Windsor avenue.

On the Republican slate for Council are Clarence Kaeber, Frank A. Schrepfer, Walter A. Fox and Henry P. Carr.

August Bailey of Conway avenue, Narberth, is enjoying his vacation this week and next. Bailey is a member of the Narberth police force.

Survey and Recommendations of L. M. Planning Commission

In the planning of any highway system, it is necessary to know the amount of traffic (volume count), the general lines in which traffic desires to move (origin and destination analyses), and the character of traffic (pleasure, business, bus or motor truck traffic). Volume counts show the relative volumes of traffic on various arteries, give data for studies of road capacities, for estimates of future traffic, for preparation of a well planned construction program, and in general, furnish information for the interpretation of all other traffic studies.

Because our present road system merely grew from the streets of horse-drawn traffic which are not always economic locations viewed from present needs, the origin and destination survey is necessary to provide data for re-routing traffic to more direct arteries and for the planning of belt lines to avoid congested centers. And, because of the rise of the motor vehicle as a factor in the mass movement of goods, a knowledge of the character of the traffic is necessary to determine the need of and proper routes for restricted-use highways, especially those restricting through-trucking whose origin and destination are beyond the municipal limits.

Lower Merion Township has the benefit of its own traffic volume counts in 1914, 1921 and 1934, classified as to character; the volume counts of the City of Philadelphia; and the varied traffic counts, including surveys of origin and destination, of the Regional Planning Federation and the Philadelphia City Planning Commission. A discussion of the traffic counts in Lower Merion with comparative traffic-flow maps form a part of this report and free use was made of the other studies mentioned in preparing the highway design.

In the planning of a highway system for Lower Merion Township, it has been necessary to disregard the division of highways into State, county, township and private roads. When the plan is complete, a more accurate division of responsibility might well be made. If the plan is good and founded on fact and sound reasoning it should be easy to convince the various responsible authorities of the necessity of the proposed improvements.

A study of the traffic counts reveals these facts of interest.

a. The point of heaviest traffic is on Lancaster avenue at Cricket avenue with 10,032 vehicles per twelve hour day. It is also the most congested spot because of the large automobile cross traffic (2446 cars on Cricket avenue, 2221 on Anderson avenue, and 2586 on Ardmore Station road) and large pedestrian travel.

City avenue, north or east of Monument avenue, also above the 10,000 mark presents no problem of congestion because of the absence of cross traffic and parking.

b. Lancaster avenue, throughout its length, shows an average increase of 130 per cent over 1921 traffic or a numerical increase of approximately 5000 cars.

Montgomery avenue has had an even larger increase, due to the desire of motorists to escape Lancaster avenue congestion. This has raised a serious problem of land use along that thoroughfare.

Haverford road, with a numerical increase of about 5000, has the astounding percentage increase of 1700 per cent or, in other words, it is carrying eighteen times the traffic of 1921. Road improvement and widening, its development as a relief route of Lancaster avenue, and the rapid growth of the area, are factors in this tremendous increase.

c. Truck and bus traffic amount to about 14½ per cent of the total volume of moving vehicles on weekdays, but drop to about 2½ per cent on Sunday.

d. In general, the traffic of 1921 was double that of 1914 and the traffic of 1934 three times that of 1921 and six times that of 1914.

Traffic flow maps of the future have not been prepared. The Planning Commission recommends that provision be made for traffic counts in 1940 and at intervals of five years thereafter so that future road construction and necessary variations in the highway plan may be based upon actual traffic conditions and needs.

Plans for Red Cross Roll Call in Autumn Now Being Formulatea

Plans for the annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross, to be held this autumn from Armistice Day, November 11, to Thanksgiving Day, November 25, have already been formulated, Mrs. Francis H. Scheetz of Ardmore, chairman of the Roll Call for the Main Line Branch No. 1, said at headquarters this week.

Mrs. Henry C. Earnshaw of Bryn Mawr, chairman of the Main Line Branch, is supervising arrangements. Mrs. Tristram C. Colket, 2d, chairman of the Roll Call in 1935, will be in charge of Higher Form Memberships, and Mrs. J. Emmet Caldwell and Mrs. William R. Mooney will be treasurer and assistant treasurer respectively.

Mrs. J. L. Canby, vice-president of the Roll Call, has contacted all "Majors" for the Main Line Branch territory, which extends roughly from City Line to Radnor and from the Schuylkill River to Darby Creek.

Majors for various districts have been announced as follows:

Ardmore No. 1, Mrs. C. Harold Kistler of Cricket avenue; Ardmore No. 2, Miss Caroline Smedley of East Montgomery avenue; Bryn Mawr, Mrs. Herbert H. Fritz of Pennswood and Radnor roads; Gladwyne, Mrs. J. K. Eisman of Righters Mill road; Merion, Mrs. John H. Reading of South Latches lane; Narberth, Mrs. E. Robert Riter of the Lakeview Apartments; Penn Valley, Mrs. Edward Forstall of Windy Ridge; Rosemont, Mrs. William W. West of Ithan and Curwen roads; Villanova, Mrs. John McClenahan of Montgomery avenue; Wynnewood, Mrs. J. O. Hackenberg of Owen road; schools, Mrs. Charles S. Townsend of Montgomery avenue, Bryn Mawr; Ardmore and Haverford business districts, Mrs. H. Wilson Moorhouse of Haverford Mansions, and Bryn Mawr business districts, Miss Vera Grannis, of the Chatterbox Tea Room.

A Roll Call luncheon at the Merion Cricket Club, with Robert E. Bondy, director of disaster relief services, as the principal speaker, has been scheduled for November 1.

speed and novelty races held the attention of the entire camp Saturday. Berwyn and Bruce MacFadden were both triple winners while Bill Whiting, Ralph Moss and George Paine also took blue ribbons in the speed events. Bill Grugan, Howard Irwin, Carroll Pennock and Bill Ryan took most of the seconds and thirds.

The novelty races had the onlookers in hysterics. The object of one race was to swim from one dock to another, blow up a balloon until it broke and then return. Bobby Paine finally won but they had to drag Parke Schoch from the water still trying to inflate his toy. In the handpaddle canoe race, Howie McConnell leaned out a little too far and Bill Jones and Carroll Laird joined him in the water while Bobby Mahon guided cabin nine to victory. The senior candle race was called off because no one could carry a lighted candle from dock to dock, although Bob Rowley and Johnny Harvey made noble attempts.

The councilors once more grabbed the lead in their season's baseball series with the boys by virtue of a 10-9 win. After trailing 6-0 after two innings were completed, Downs Longaker and John Macionis led two rallies that each netted five runs. Len Jones and Jim Dykes were able to get three of them back for the boys but they weren't enough.

Again the weekly inspection ended in a tie, this time between cabins seven and ten. Doc Moore's winning team in seven is composed of Bill Deal, Fred Smith and Frank Wedge while Ira Fox's crew in ten is made up of Sib Lee, Bob Roberts, Hank Ludlow, Dick Custer, Jim Deakins and Berwyn MacFadden. These boys will receive a speedboat ride Monday afternoon for their care and diligence.

Many parents visited the camp over the week-end, including Mr. and Mrs. Brodhead, Mr. and Mrs. Middleton and Mr. and Mrs. Walton. Mr. Walton was responsible for a pleasant surprise Saturday night when he treated the entire camp to soft drinks.

Rain Deluges Business Section

The downpour Monday night for a few minutes almost inundated the business streets in Narberth. Haverford avenue was a river for a short time and several business places along the streets were flooded. Numerous ponds were made on the playground, and many children enjoyed wading after the storm.

Temple Students Visit Library

The Narberth Community Library was visited Tuesday by fifteen students of the Library School of Temple University.

They were accompanied by Miss Bessie Graham, the head of the school and author of the "Bookman's Manual."

The students occupied themselves with practice work and were served with light refreshments.

Second Half of Shaw Festival at Hedgerow

National Event Attracts Many to Famous Theatre in Rose Valley

Much water has passed through the mill-race at the Hedgerow Theatre since its first Shaw Festival in 1934. With caution and a feeling of uncertainty the famous repertory company offered a six day Festival honoring Mr. Shaw, and critics predicted a handsome future for the celebrations.

For the next two weeks the theatre is presenting the second half of its Fourth Annual Shaw Festival, which extends over a period of four weeks and offers eleven carefully selected Shaw plays. It has been publicized from coast to coast as a national theatrical event.

Hedgerow's seamstresses and designers have been hard at work for the last three months building new clothes for many of the productions, so that even the most seasoned of the Shaw offerings has a new look.

The Shavian presentations for the coming week are: Tonight, "Saint Joan;" Saturday, "Too True to be Good," the new play opened Monday, Next Monday, "Misalliance;" Tuesday, "Arms and the Man;" Wednesday, "Candida;" Thursday, "Too True to be Good," Friday, "The Devil's Disciple."

Daniel Newhall Jones

Funeral services for Daniel Newhall Jones, of 305 Brookway avenue, Merion, were held Tuesday afternoon with interment private.

He died in the Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, Saturday morning.

Mr. Newhall, who was 28, had been employed by A. H. Lamborn and Co., Philadelphia sugar brokers. On July 20 he was stricken at work and removed to the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl E. Lindgren, with whom he lived. He was removed to the hospital the same day. Death was due to the development of peritonitis.

Besides Mrs. Jones, he is survived by one child, Karl Lindgren Jones, two and one-half.
